MAYFIELD NOTES.

An Incendiary Fire Occurred Yesterday.

Too Much Local Option Whiskey Occasions Two Fights.

A Mayfield dispatch to the Louis ville Times: The dwelling of Mr. Ed Rohrer, in West Mayfield, was destroyed by fire yesterday. The loss is about $1000, with no insurance. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary, and officers are at work on the case. While the fire company was fighting the fire a box of cartridges and a pistol exploded, causing a general panic among the bystanders. After the fire had been subdued and the fire company called off, the two dwell- temperature yesterday was 96 deings adjoining the one burned ware grees. found to be on tire, and the second alarm was given. There is some doubt as to whether the last fire was caused by the first. If the torch was applied by a fiend he was certainly a bold one. Dan McGuire and John D. Mc
